This household very strongly OPPOSES weakening the Indiana law concerning telephone privacy. It has been such a relief to not be inundated with the loads of calls interfering with our personal home activities that we used to receive. We have our names on the no-call list for a very specific reason: WE DO NOT WISH TO RECEIVE CONTINUAL SALES CALLS. Please do not undo what this precious list has provided: PEACE.